

The Arts Society Blackmore Vale's Newsletter for June

At last a bit of warmth, may I suggest a few ideas for viewing in June while enjoying the Summer!

www.national.gallery.org.uk

Thursday 24th June 10.30-11.30am Book for free.

A talk introducing Jan van Kessel's painting of Insects with Creeping Thistle

Thursday 10th June 1-2pm Book for free

A talk introducing Poland's most celebrated history painter, Jan Matejko and his role in Polish Arts and Craft Movement 1890-1918

wallacecollection.org

Rubens : Re-uniting the Great Landscapes – various dates Book for free.

BSO Concerts – Digital Live Stream £9

Schumann and Franck – live streamed until 4th June

Beethoven and Wagner – until 11th June

Mendelssohn and Sibelius – until 18th June

Tchaikovsky- until 10th June

drrichardstemp.com _ Monday 24th May, 7 & 8th June 2pm & 6pm £10

Talk : A Life in three Paintings - The work of Caravaggio

Podcasts

Meet Me at the Museum - The Art Fund

The Week in Art - The Art Newspaper

NT Talks - The National Theatre

Books

The Banks Florilegium – Thames and Hudson

Captain Cook's first voyage and Joseph Bank's botanical discoveries.

The Crichel Boys – Simon Fenwick

A history of Britain's last literary salon from Nancy Mitford to EG Forster

Enjoy!

Anthea Payne

